

PUERTO RICO RECYCLING PARTNERSHIP
GROUP C - DEVELOPMENT OF RECYCLING MARKETS
AGENDA
October 28, 2010

- Introduction of new members
- Communication tool
- Identify private companies that may assist in the education process in order to encourage the development of recycling activities in P.R.
  - Review document prepared by engineer A. García de la Noceda, College of Engineers and Surveyors
- Identify companies and/or entities currently purchasing recyclables manufactured in P.R.
  - Review list prepared by M.O. Santiago, Solid Waste Authority
  - Identify additional entities who may be contacted
- How operators of certain commercial facilities are implementing recycling activities
  - Discuss possibility of replicate this model in other commercial facilities
- Conditions for improving use of drop-offs in places where no other alternatives may be available
- Identify people currently proposing conceptual projects for recycling of materials
  - Consider possibility of incorporating business incubators to Group C
  - Identify business incubators
  - Discuss alternatives to encourage small business for recycling activities
    - Partnership with non government organizations that may assist in the education process (entrepreneurship)
- Other
  - Any aspects pending for next meeting
  - Prepare summary of recommendations
- Identify other possible members
- Determine date of next meeting